

How Advocacy has Shaped the Oregon Wine Industry

Guest Speaker: Jana McKamey, Executive Director

With more than four decades of policymaking experience, the Oregon Winegrowers Association serves as the authority to legislators and policymakers on Oregon wine industry issues. The OWA is a member-driven advocacy non-profit that harnesses the power of state-wide consensus to advance the interests of the largest agricultural economic impact sector in the state. Learn about key initiatives over the decades that have contributed to the success of the industry, along with key policy issues impacting the industry today.
