

Violence and Child Trafficking in Africa

Guest Speaker: Will Lathrop, North Ugandan Office Director, International Justice Mission

The International Justice Mission is an international organization focused on human rights, law and law enforcement. They collaborate with local authorities to serve individual survivors of violence, pursue sustainable improvements in the justice system and build communities where all people can expect to be safe and protected. The West Africa anti-human trafficking operation combats violent raids against widows and orphans, rescues child slaves from the fishing industry and women from forced labor and prosecutes criminals and traffickers.