

School Board 101

Guest Speaker: Nancy Woodward, Chair, Newberg School Board

Nancy Woodward has been the chair of the Newberg School Board since July 2023. She will share some insights and experiences about her first months as a school board member.

Topics will include:

- What are the responsibilities of school board members?
- How to stay in the correct lane when serving as a board member?
- What can I do so I can become a better board member?
- How can the school board work together to focus on student learning?
- One board member's view on how we are doing as we strive to educate all students.
